

The New Health Law & You

WARD 1 TOWN HALL MEETING

Tuesday, July 23, 2013

6:30 p.m.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS COMMUNITY CENTER

1480 Girard Street, NW

Washington, DC 20009

Goals of the New Health Law

- Protect consumers against unfair insurance industry practices
- Give consumers more insurance options
- Give small business owners more clout

March 23, 2010

New Rights

Insurance companies can no longer:

- Deny coverage based on pre-existing conditions
- Charge women of child-bearing age higher premiums
- Place annual or lifetime caps on coverage
- Charge higher premiums to small businesses based on their industry (i.e., construction)

New Benefits

All insurance policies must cover:

- Doctor visits
- Hospital stays
- Emergency room care
- Maternity and newborn care
- Prescription drugs
- Lab tests
- Preventive tests and services
- Rehabilitative and habilitative services and devices
- Mental health care
- Substance use disorder services
- Dental and vision care for children

New Responsibilities

For individuals and families:

- Most people have to have health insurance (private health insurance, Medicare, Medicaid, Tricare, or other) or pay a penalty (the greater of $95 per adult and $47.50 per child in 2014 or 1% of family income)
- Financial help will be available to people with low and moderate incomes
- Those who cannot afford insurance even with extra help can apply for an exemption from the penalty

Help Paying for Insurance

Many residents, without other coverage options, will be eligible for help paying premiums:

- Individuals with income up to $45,960
- Two-person families with income up to $62,024
- Four-person families with income up to $94,200

Help for Small Businesses

- Tax credits are available if your business has
  - Fewer than 25 full-time workers
  - Average wages of $50,000 or less
- Tax credits can cover as much as
  - 50% of a for-profit employer's contribution
  - 35% of a non-profit employer's contribution
